It is Spring at Pomoroy and the examinations are on.

Mrs. Granger, confident that Tom will win the $5,000 Baker Scholarship, arrives at the college to be present when he gets it.

In the classroom, the examinations are in progress. Merton "frames" Tom and makes it appear that he has been dishonorable by cautiously throwing a folded piece of paper containing the examination questions on the floor behind Tom.

Tom has been unable to convince the school officials of his innocence, and he and his mother are packing to leave Pomoroy, Tom without the scholarship.

Nita, Rupert and Steve, however, determine to clear Tom. They recall having seen a drunk one day laughing uproariously to himself, who told them that a college boy had paid him fifty dollars to steal a piece of paper. They remember this, and track the man; get him drunk, and he shows them the check he received for stealing the examination questions, which is signed by Merton Randolph.

The result is that Tom receives the scholarship and everybody is happy again except Merton, who receives notice of his expulsion from college. Nita, and Tom, of course, become engaged.

End of the Series.
